THE FRENCH EXHIBITION AND THE CONSCRIPTION.

A GENERAL AMNESTY.

Paris 16th—The Government is seriously occupied with devising a plan which will allow the numerous Frenchmen now resident in South America who have not complied with the obligations of military service, to visit the Universal Exhibition without fear of being troubled on that account. It appears, in short, that a decree will be issued exonerating from all punishment those who go to Paris on the occasion of the opening of the Exhibition, or in other words, a general amnesty.

Paris, 15th—Yesterday at a banquet at Versailles, deputy Laguerre read a discourse of General Boulanger. He compared the acts of the present artificial Republic with those of the Republic of '89, and added that at the Centenary the reforms, already initiated, would be completed.

Paris, 16th—Merlin will be the president of the committee of Senators appointed to try Boulanger and Condolet, Demole and Harvink are elected members of the committee for the examination of documents in the case. Amongst the papers to be perused, there are 300 newspaper articles and a large number of Boulanger's visiting cards, on the back of which he had written short messages and notes. In addition to the charge of suborning the army, he is accused of malversation of funds belonging to the Ministry of War and of having pronounced a seditious discourse on the evening of President Carnot's election. It is said that Clemenceau can prove the last charge.

London—The Weekly Despatch says that O'Brien has commenced an action for slander against Lord Salisbury on account of observations contained in his recent speech at Watford.

Berlin.—News from Vienna states that the Empress of Austria is suffering from an hereditary disease. She suffers from melancholia and in moments of aberration accuses herself of being the cause of Prince Rudolf's death. She has suicidal ideas, and is continually fondling a pillow fancying it to be a recently born heir to the throne. The Emperor is much affected and suffers from insomnia, manifesting little interest in State affairs. It is said that he has consulted Kalnoky and Taaffe on the question of abdicating in favour of his nephew Archduke Francis; also that he has written to the Pope declaring his wish for rest and retirement and that he has received an answer urging the necessity of submitting to the decrees of Heaven.

THE ANDES RAILWAY.

This railway, which was constructed by the Argentine Government many years ago, and which we all thought was sold in 1887 to Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez & Co., by virtue of the law of Congress, is now the subject of great complaint, owing to the inferiority of its rolling stock and the dilapidation of its works.

The line is one of the most important in the country, and measures some 260 kilometres. It joins Villa Maria on the Central Argentine line with Villa Mercedes in San Luis on the Pacific line. Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez & Co. bought it for the round sum of $7,395,000 gold, on which purchase-money the Government guaranteed 6 per cent. per annum interest.

But it seems that there was some hitch in the sale, which was never carried out; and the line, which was handed over to Gonzalez & Co., has ever since remained with that firm as lessees or tenants; and, strange to say, the rent to be paid to the Government has never been fixed, for what cause we know not; but certainly the matter calls for immediate inquiry.

It is not surprising that under such circumstances a loose administration and an uncertain proprietorship should reduce the line and its works to their present low level. The Government is no longer responsible for the working of the line, since it has handed it over to Gouzalez & Co., who are equally irresponsible, since they are not the owners, the titles never having been perfected; nor yet are they the lessees, since they pay no rent. Could anything be more unsatisfactory? The Minister of the Interior should look to this in time before Congress meet, as we hear the matter is to be brought before the House.

The fine workshops in Rio Cuarto, according to our advices, are almost shut up, and 14 or 15 engines are waiting there to be repaired. The passengers have to change trains at Villa Mercedes, San Luis, and also at Villa Maria, owing to the scarcity of rolling-stock on the Andine.

"En fin", the affairs of this line call for inquiry; and perhaps the wisest course for the Government to adopt is to perfect the sale and deposit the purchase-money in the National Bank.

PARIS LETTER

(From our own Correspondent)

March, 12.

It appears that there is no peace in the cry of peace. The Government of M. Tirard was announced to be an "Exhibition" Cabinet. It is turning out to be one of a very serious combative character. As the best caricature journals illustrate the situation, the ministry seems to be blind from hatred of Boulangism, and the latter is only the symbol and product of discontent, not at the failure of the Republic, but of the men into whose hands its administration has fallen.

Clearly Boulanger and his disciples are likely to have a bad time of it till October—that is till the general elections—put things right. Matters are on the road to becoming as wild, and as cruelly dangerous, as during the Jacobin frenzies of the First Republic. Boulangists are ticketed pariahs; their republicanism cannot be republicanism, because it differs from that of the republican majority of the Chamber of Deputies—a majority the country condemns, desires to see dissolved, and to never return. In handing over Senator Naquet to the Head Police Magistrate, the Senate has forgotten all its old saws about liberty &c. In handing over three deputies to the same functionary, the Chamber of Deputies has equally ignored the principles of liberty. The republic ought to be able to live by toleration.

The League of Patriots has been taken as the pivot to attack Boulangism. Its high officers, its president Paul Deroulede, as well as the persons just alluded to, are to be indicted as being members of a secret Society. Up to the present, their chief crime in the eyes of impartial observers was, that they made too much noise, so much so as to annoy Prince Bismarck. Of late, they certainly became an organization to push forward the Boulangist movement, and the Government, concluding the republic was being undermined by that movement, has applied all the rigors of all the laws to suppress its members and leaders.

It is thought that in thus acting, the government, certain to secure convictions of the accused, perhaps for 6 or 18 months, will thus have them under lock and key, till the elections be held in the autumn. Or, their condemnation may entail loss of political rights, and so they would be ineligible for the new Chamber. There is still another theory; that of forcing the Boulangists to resist, to fly into an 'emeute', which would be suppressed, and a state of siege proclaimed, when the elections would be held under that regime. As Cavour said, any man can govern with a state of siege. Indeed the out-look for tranquillity is black indeed.

It would be a terrible calamity if political rows caused the Exhibition to come to grief. It is really a beautiful structure; and the old idea is really presented by so many original features, as to be regarded as new. I was over the buildings and through the grounds a few days ago. Much clearing up and finishing touches remain to be executed, but nothing that will amount to cause any delay in the opening of the exhibition. The Eiffel Tower is now receiving its hood; the restaurants in that iron cage are in a fair way for completion. The visitors will be astonished at their vastness—veritable ball rooms, and for three to five francs an excellent dejeuner, or dinner, may be counted upon. The repasts will be served on the "Duval" principal—each plate at a fixed and relatively low price. The Brebant Company has obtained the catering contract, which will divide the profits with the Eiffel Society on the share and share alike arrangement.

The one fact that will strike most forcibly the visitor will be that of the splendid colouring of the galleries. Up to the present exhibitions were contented with something of a monotony in two colors. In the present exhibition the whole science of chromatics appears to have been studied to produce the most harmonious combinations of shades and tints, each gallery having its special rich, soft and attractive coloring, where nothing dazzles, nothing fatigues or pains. Ceramic tiling has largely entered into the work of general ornamentation, and has proved most effective. I still postpone a full description of the Pavilion erected by the Argentine Republic. It is a success apart; suffice it to say, that the Argentines have secured full value and not a little glory in advance for their three good millions of francs they have voted.

The return of the Duc d'Aumale has pleased his friends. There was no good reason for sending him into golden exile, so there is no apology to be offered for allowing him to return. The Republic ought to ostracise no one. If any violate the law, whether royal duke or simple "proletaire," hand them over alike to be dealt with by the Code. Try all fairly, but not under the influence of political passions, because these beget evils that will take root. It is said that the motive that dictated the rescinding of the degree of banishment was to run the duke against Boulanger. This could hardly be true, as the Orleanists have no following in the country. They are a staff, but have no soldiers. The duke has protested against his nephew, the Comte de Paris, flirting with Boulangism. A good seating of the Republic, on measures, not on men, would lay all the opposition "isms."

The misfortunes of the Comptoir d'Escompte are not yet at an end. The depositors have withdrawn their deposits, and will not likely re-place them in a financial establishment that has compromised its reputation by wild-cat speculations. Thanks to a timely interference on the part of the Minister of Finance, Rouvier, a guarantee fund was negotiated with the Bank of France, to enable the Comptoir to escape closing its doors.

They are the shareholders—numbering 160,000—or one-fifth of the total of the Panama victims, who are to be pitied. In December last the shares were quoted at 1030 fr., they are now down to 300 frs, or keep going up and down. The public wants to be enlightened on the extent of the liability of the Comptoir for the execution of the Copper Mines contracts. Is it to see these mines paid for their outputs, at artificial prices per ton, till the year 1891? If so, the Comptoir is in a very bad way.

The decision of the Court of appeal ought to please M. de Lesseps. The Canal Company has been declared a civil, not a commercial enterprise, so the directors cannot be declared bankrupts and their estates made liable for their last centime. The old directors are replaced by a liquidator, with full power to examine and declare if the Company should be wound up. Of course it must be, as nobody will lend it a sou, nor will any individual or corporate body take it for nothing. The age is dead against rings, corners and white elephants.

REPLY TO Mr. O'MEARA.

(From the Southern Cross.)

We reproduce in another column a letter from Mr. H. B. O'Meara which appeared in the Standard of Saturday, and in which we are sharply taken to task for running counter to the designs of the Argentine Immigration agent in Dublin. It is a pity Mr. O'Meara did not descend from the general to the particular, and put his charges in legal form. The bill of indictment then might run thus:

It is hereby alleged and can be proved by overwhelming evidence—

1st. That a certain 'Britisher' (sic) named Michael Dinneen, in his position as journalist, did wickedly and feloniously forewarn his countrymen of the fate that awaited them should they emigrate in large numbers to the Argentine Republic, and did predict, with prophetic accuracy, the sufferings they would have to undergo.

2nd. That the said Michael Dinneen had the audacity to correct certain misstatements made by Mr. O'Meara, though he well knew that it was not the duty of the Immigration Office or its emissaries to tell the truth.

3rd. That the said Michael Dinneen did aid and abet certain other wicked 'Britishers' in assisting the unfortunate immigrants, and did propose in an assembly of conspirators that a permanent association be formed to protect them.

4th. That the said Michael Dinneen was not lucky in Australia.

Now, to take up the last count first I may say that I have not experienced good or bad luck in Australia, as I never set foot in that country, nor have I resided in any land of 'Britishers' except that 'British' land called Ireland, and I am safe in saying that in whatever land I have tried my fortune I was more successful there than Mr. O'Meara was in this which he now represents as an 'El Dorado.' To the first three counts of the indictment I plead guilty, and I therefore throw myself on Mr. O'Meara's mercy and implore him when next he sits down to write about me and slander me, as he did in a Dublin newspaper, that he will take a lenient view of my faults, which after all, are not so great that they may not be condoned.

Seriously speaking, does it not look like the irony of fate, that I am assailed in the newspapers by Mr. O'Meara, at the very time when I am doing my best, in conjunction with many generous friends, to rescue the immigrants from the Slough of Despond into which they were blindly driven by the immigration agent? If I were the selfish and malignant person that Mr. O'Meara represents me, I would have quietly acquiesced in his proceedings, and allowed him to work his own sweet will, that the curses of his victims might one day pursue him. Instead of that I was the first to sound the alarm, and not only did I exhort all English-speaking people in town and camp to form association, but I called on several gentlemen personally with a view to the same object. God forbid that I should here boast of any little services I may have done my countrymen. I only mention them to prove to Mr. O'Meara that I am his best friend in this republic, and that I have done at least one man's share in preventing the evil consequences of his excessive zeal in the service of his masters. The cry of reprobation that went up unanimously from the press of Buenos Ayres at the treatment the first shipload of immigrants received must have reached Mr. O'Meara's ears ere now, and I need not repeat it here.

Two or three quotations from the hundreds that I might select will be quite sufficient. The Rev. Mr. Gaughren who attended the immigrants with the devotion of a martyr said that it would be false to state that they were treated like beasts, as even beasts are supplied with food and beds. La Prensa declared that the treatment the immigrants received was a disgrace to the Government and in a very able article accused the immigration agents in Ireland of having brought about such a lamentable state of things. Here is a paragraph from a leader in the Buenos Ayres Herald, which will serve as a soothing syrup and a healing balsam for the wounded feelings of Mr. O'Meara:

"We know that the Dresden company were lied to, basely deceived and cruelly inveigled here. We know that had it not been for such men as Drysdale, Dinneen, Newbury, Mulhall, Gartland and others like them, these immigrants would have suffered for food and shelter. We know that such arrivals impose a heavy burden on charity and benevolence, and we know just as well that through the neglect, inefficiency and carelessness of public officials there is no provision for receiving such immigration and we ought to have enough of independence to recommend no more such coming until preparations of a suitable character shall have been made, and not hesitate through fear of offending officialism or of damaging the schemes of immigration agents whose list of qualifications does not include the truth."

It is curious that when Mr O'Meara undertook to judge of my motives in criticising his conduct as a public official he forgot that the Standard to which he appeals for support took exactly the same view of it as the Southern Cross. When the arrival of the Dresden was announced with 1800 Irish and English immigrants on board that journal exclaimed in protestation: "The very evil we have been fearing and denouncing for years is about to take place" and on last Friday when the news came that another shipload was on the way the Standard enquired: "What on earth are we going to do with them?" Is not Minister Quirno Costa's message to Mr O'Meara ordering him to stop for a time what he would call "the current of bone and sinew" flowing to this country proof positive that the agent had overstepped the limits of duty? We all know that this is a rich country—and a land flowing with milk and honey—and if the truth were told about it there could be no objection one way or another, but Mr O'Meara has been scattering falsehoods broad-cast through Ireland during the past two years and it is against these falsehoods and not against his exalted person that the Southern Cross has been protesting. He stated that the immigrants on landing here received hospitality in a "comfortable home, "that the Government was prepared to give every colonist 160 hectareas of land on asking for it, that English-speaking immigrants (Britishers) would find plenty of their countrymen in all parts of the Republic, that land can be easily got at half a crown an acre, that the dollar is worth about 4s. &c. Mr. O'Meara knew or ought to have known that all these statements were false or misleading and he need not be surprised that we deem it our duty in the interests of our countrymen to correct them. In conclusion we have merely to add that if Mr. O'Meara will only succeed in inducing the Government to put its fine theories into practice or if he will otherwise provide for the security of the immigrants under the difficult circumstances in which they are placed on landing here; if he will in short represent things as they really are he may always expect to get full credit for his actions in the columns of the Southern Cross.

Michael Dinneen.

ROUND ABOUT LOMAS AND TEMPERLEY.

(By our Peripatetic Correspondent).

There are few pleasanter ways of spending a Sunday or holiday than by a visit to the new "Quartier Anglais" which is rapidly being formed round Temperley on the Great Southern Railway. The whole district, we may say, between the stations of Banfield and Adrogue is plentifully sprinkled with tidy English cottages, villas, and some buildings which might even aspire to the title of mansion. The chief interest, however, is centred in the pretty little church of the Holy Trinity, which lies nestling in a fine group of trees and shrubs on the east side of the line between Lomas and Temperley; with it is connected a parsonage, and the whole occupies a piece of ground given in perpetuity to the English congregation at Lomas by the late Mr. Green, whose fine residence "Paradise" is now in possession of Mr. Meeks.

Considerable additions have quite recently been made to the church and parsonage, and congregations of something over one hundred persons are collected together every Sunday to worship and to listen to the stirring eloquence of the Rev. Arnold Pinchard, whose recent appointment to this parish has given such general satisfaction. A few Sundays ago I went out by the "church" train (10.40 a.m.) as it is called, and it reminded me much of an English country parish to meet so many groups of English people hurrying to church along the picturesque roads which abound in this neighbourhood. Then under the pretty wooden porch were the churchwardens exchanging kindly greetings with the people as they poured in, and once more inside the church I was struck by the calmness, the repose, and the earnestness of a congregation which comprises many well-known names among our English community.

The choir, formed of ladies and gentlemen, all residing in the neighbourhood, sang exceedingly well together, and with a spirit and exactitude which was quite refreshing; the organ accompaniment was also admirable.

The service was impressive, and made doubly so by the young Vicar whose perfectly modulated voice added such a charm to our grand old mother-tongue.

The address was short and practical and delivered, so far as I could see, "ex tempore" and without notes. As we all came out again into the quiet country air I felt that it had been "good" for us all inside this simple little church, away from the riot and the unholy noisiness of a Sunday in the Capital.

The English of Lomas are nothing if not hospitable, so I was overwhelmed with invitations to stay over Monday (a holiday). Only too glad to escape the dust and stifling heat of the town, I spent a glorious evening at a friend's house, and awoke next morning to the music of birds and the busy hum of insect life—such a contrast to the monotonous tones of tramway horns.

After an early breakfast and a turn or two in my friend's extensive garden, my host drove me along the Santa Catalina road some miles, and we visited on our way the Victoria Convalescent Home—a most charming haven of rest for the poor invalid, and about which more anon (with my editor's permission). Our road was undulating, and gave us extensive views of well-wooded and fertile country on every side.

Home again for a wholesome country lunch and a good cigar, and then to join a lawn tennis party at a neighboring quinta, where we found some twenty or thirty people gathered under the grateful shade of some fine trees, enjoying their tea and watching the gambols of the young men and maidens as, in wonderfully varied costumes, they followed the quickly moving ball with all the characteristic energy of the British youth.

It was a pleasant scene, and once more memories of geeen leaves and Arcadian shepherdesses in the old, old country crossed my mind.

We adjourned to the dinner table, spread in the open air heavy with the perfume of countless flowers, and as the glints of yellow light from a fast-setting sun flashed and split into a thousand beams on the crystal on the table, each beam was a measure of content and sent a sympathetic thrill into the heart of the wanderer.

After dinner we set to talking about houses and land, of course, and it seems that houses are scarce and rents are high in this desirable neighborhood, but land and building lots are still, or so it appears to me, decidedly cheap and easily obtained. I came away Sunday morning well pleased with my paseo, recognizing in the salubrious and pretty suburbs of Lomas and Temperly an enjoyable retreat for the overburdened population of Bueno sAires, and a safe investment for the more modest householder.

THE LEADING FRENCH BANKS

The City Correspondent of the Standard writes:—Some particulars regarding the constitution of the leading French Banks—other than the Bank of France itself—may be useful just now. There are a large number of them of one kind or another; but practically no more than four possess much interest here. These are the Comptoir d'Escompte, the Crédit Lyonnais, the Societe Generale, and the Banque de Paris et du Pays Bas. Of these four Institutions, the "Societe Generale pour favoriser le developpement du Commerce et de l'Industrie en France," to give it its full title, is the only one whose Shares are registered in the names of the holders. They are £20 Shares with £10 paid, and cannot be made "bearer" Shares till fully paid up. This is a strong support to the Bank at a time like the present. All these Banks, except the Banque de Paris, are allowed by their statutes to receive deposits from the public, but the exception is constituted as a finance institution pure and simple, and its business in actual fact is chiefly that of loan-monger. At the present time it is deeply involved in Spanish and in Argentine and Uruguayan Securities, and is believed to have more or less large stakes in most of the schemes for "rigging" and "converting" Stocks in which the Haute Banque is engaged. The capital of the defunct Comptoir was, as is now too well known, £3,200,000, in £20 Shares fully paid, and £800,000 in reserve. The Credit Lyonnais, the Comptoir's most ambitious rival abroad, has augmented its capital at various critical periods in its history, until the total now stands at £8,000,000 nominal, in £20 Shares, £10 paid. Its actual paid-up capital is therefore £4,000,000, and its reserves are put down at £2,400,000, partly represented by premiums on new issues of Shares. These figures make it the largest of the French deposit and trading Banks, for the paid-up capital of the Societe Generale is only £2,400,000. Its Shares, however, being registered, bear a liability of as much again, whereas the uncalled capital of the Credit Lyonnais would be of very little use, as registration in its case is optional. As for the Banque de Paris, its capital was originally £5,000,000 nominal, in £40 Shares, half paid-up, but in 1878 the uncalled portion was written off, so that the capital was made to stand at £2,500,000, in £20 Shares fully paid-up.

THE COMPTOIR D'ESCOMPTE.

Paris, March 20.

The Statutes of the new Comptoir National d'Escompte have been drawn up by the Commission nominated on Saturday at the meeting held at the Finance Ministry under M. Rouvier. The capital of the new Company is to be forty million francs. It will consist of eighty thousand Shares of five hundred francs each. The first instalment to be paid on these new Shares will be one hundred and twenty-five francs. Forty thousand Shares are to be offered to the Shareholders of the old Comptoir, in the proportion of one new Share for every four old Shares; and the other forty thousand are to be taken by the financial establishments which guaranteed the advances of one hundred and forty million francs made to the Comptoir d'Escompte.

These new statutes, which are to be submitted for the approval of M. Rouvier, the Minister of Finance, by M. Christophle, President of the Commission and Governor of the Crédit Foncier, contain an important article stipulating that the first instalment paid on these new shares is to be invested in French Rentes, with the object of constituting a guarantee for the depositors of the Comptoir National d'Escompte. An extraordinary meeting of the Shareholders of the old Comptoir will be held before the end of next month, with the object of resolving upon the liquidation of their Company.

The Paris states that a group of the Shareholders of the Societé des Métaux has made an application to the Civil Tribunal for the dissolution of the Company, in order, if possible, to prevent its bankruptcy, and the belief is expressed that a judicial liquidator will be appointed immediately.

The Temps understands that M. Denormandie would not refuse the post of President of the new Comptoir if it were offered to him. M. Chevillotte, Deputy for Finisterre, intends to interpellate the Minister of Finance in the Chamber upon the subject of the affairs of the Comptoir d'Escompte, and more particularly regarding the assistance rendered by the Bank of France.

ROYAL MAIL STEAM PACKET CO.

To the Editor of the STANDARD:

Dear Sir:

Kindly allow me a very brief space for a few words further on the subject of the Royal Mail Company.

Mr. Green's response in your issue of to-day to my communication of 13th inst. clearly denotes that he replied before having carefully perused it, otherwise he could not have found any direct attack upon himself to be passed over with silence and contempt.

The press is for controversy and criticism, not for personalities. What I wrote was in reference to the Royal Mail Company as public carriers and to the Agent in his capacity as such, and my remarks were with the object of eliciting some satisfactory explanation of the delay of the Tagus.

I have been informed on credible authority that it does not require seven days to supply a steamer with the necessary coal, even under existing circumstances.

If the San Nicolas is detained in Montevideo for want of coal, it does not follow that the same fate should befall a steamer here, where I believe, although dear, coal is more plentiful for the moment.

Thanking Mr. Green for his expression of regret at the inconvenience caused me, and you Mr. Editor for the use of your valuable columns.

I remain,
Yours truly
Still A Victim.

RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION.

The recommendations of the Ford Committee favoring further restrictions upon immigration do not meet with favor. Discussion of these suggestions has disclosed a widespread appreciation of the grave objections to which they are subject and of the false principles on which they are based. The right of every nation to exclude from its ports the morally diseased and those who are incapacitated for good and useful citizenship by insanity, pauperism or depravity, is as fully recognized as the right to maintain a quarantine against the plague-infected whose admission would spread the pestilence. The principle is, as should be, the same. We do not wish contributions to the population of our hospitals, asylums and prisons, and are justified in taking all due precautions to discourage and prevent such immigration. But immigrants who come prepared to earn their living and to take part in the great work of developing our resources and contributing to our wealth are welcome, and any restriction upon their coming is injurious to public interests as well as subversive of the principles upon which our Government was founded.

The policy of restriction finds favor only among those who are so short-sighted as to believe that the exclusion of workers will ensure a better demand for their own labor or enable them to secure better pay for less work, but such assumptions are contrary to the facts. If it is proposed to restrict immigration on the mistaken theory that the admission of more wage-earners is detrimental to the interests of our people, this purpose should be frankly avowed, and its fallacy will then be exposed and repudiated. The Ford Bill is liable to a charge of false pretences. Under the guise of excluding immigrants who would become occupants of our asylums, hospitals and jails, it really asks to exclude those who would enter our mills, mines and workshops. The bill aims at the restriction and discouragement of immigration rather than the exclusion of the depraved and objectionable. It seeks to exclude those who come to earn a living rather than those who are incapable of doing so; and it is mistaken in principle, faulty in construction and injurious in effect. If we are to have further legislation affecting immigration, let it be an improvement on what has gone before, not an aggravation of past blunders and a further departure from sound principles.—N. Y. C. Bulletin.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY AND THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.—THE ROSARIO RAILWAY DOES NOT LIKE TO PAY FINES.

The local board of the Pacific Railway have forwarded to the Board of Public Works Manager Hill's letter on the state of the line. Mr. Hill, as already observed in a previous issue, suggests that a committee of engineers be named to study the more direct causes of the floods.

Mr. J. C. Clark, Manager of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway, has written a lengthy note to the Home Minister requesting H. E. to be merciful and annul the fine imposed on the Company on account of the Bancalari disaster.

In regard to the Central Uruguay Railway, the River Plate Times says:

From the Report of the Central Uruguay Railway Company of Montevideo Limited, for the half-year ending 31st. December 1888, we take the following figures which speak most eloquently of the continued and great prosperity of our first Railway.

	1887	1888
	£	£
The gross receipts of the railway for the half year have been.....	96,042	130,856
Less working expenses.....	50,147	60,919
Net.....	45,895	69,937

This shows the enormous difference of £24.042, or say $120,900, in favour of 1888.

After providing for the debenture interest, the net revenue shews a balance of £59.621, 19s. 7d., out of which an interim dividend of 6s. per share (equal to 6 per cent. per annum) will be paid, carrying forward the large balance of £18,821, 19s. 7d.

The gross receipts of the line for the half-year shew an increase of £34,813. 5s. 11d. or equal to 36.25 per cent.; and the increase in the net profit is £24,041. 15s. 5d., or 52·38 per cent.

The working expenses amount to 46·55 per cent., as compared with 52·21 in 1887.

The receipts from passenger traffic shew an increase of 18.44 per cent.; and the receipts from goods traffic an increase of 46.34 per cent.

The receipts per train mile have been 16s. 1d. in 1888, as against 13s. 11d. in 1887; and the expense of working per train mile has been 7s. 6d., as compared with 7s. 3d. in the corresponding half-year.

The number of passengers carried in the half-year of 1888 was 174,658 against 150,638 in 1887, an increase of 24,020 or. 15·94 per cent.

Mr. Chamberlain reports, under date 24th. January, 1889, concerning the passenger traffic as follows:

"The increase in this branch of traffic is due to the following causes:

1. The improvement in general commerce inducing more business travelling.

2. The decreased rates and improved speeds introduced with the object of promoting local traffic.

3. The influx of Argentine tourists."

The receipts from passenger traffic were £33.281 against £28.100 in 1887.

The Minister of the Interior has decreed that the Railway Bureau shall notify the different managements that they must place a special compartment for the mails in each train.

The Minister of the Interior has resolved that the Department of Public Works shall grant to Messrs. Touret and Co., a patent for 10 years for their invention "Tramway con riel central y ruedas ascensionales".

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming back the Lord Mayor of Buenos Ayres, Mr. Francis Seeber, who has just arrived from a tour through Europe. A new leaf in city affairs will now be turned over, as Mr. Seeber has studied city government in every European capital and returns prepared with a vast plan for improving the health and general arrangements of his native city. We bid him a cordial welcome.

We have received some kind subscriptions for the distressed English family referred to in our columns yesterday. They will be found acknowledged in another column. There is very widespread sympathy expressed in English circles for this suffering family.

We learn that the South American Bank Note Company and the best illustrated paper in this Hemisphere, the Sud-Americano, have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Professor Maximilian Lenz, of the Vienna Academy of Painting, a most eminent artist. We warmly congratulate the enterprising "tocayos" on such a valuable acquisition.

Last night's telegrams from Montevideo announced a scarcity of news. Here we were pretty much—but not so very much—in the same boat. It all depends on what people consider news. Ladies are far more consistent as to what constitutes news than the other sex. True as the needle to the Pole, they fasten on births, deaths and marriages the first thing every morning: but no one can tell where a man begins to read his paper.

The grateful news that the morning frosts have done no harm whatever in the camp was received yesterday. Sheep in some parts are suffering a little from worms.

Our esteemed and distinguished colleague Emile Daireaux is candidate for Paris at the next election of Deputies.

The Argentine Minister in London has forwarded to the Foreign Secretary the news published by the London Times announcing that the English Minister of Commerce has been informed by the Admiralty that the war steamer Champion has received orders to examine the coast of Tierra del Fuego between the Bay of San Sebastian and the Bay of Stoggetn to search for shipwrecked sailors.

We have to apologize to those of our subscribers who did not receive their Standard yesterday. The fault lay with the Gas Company who at 3 a. m. while the paper was being printed, so reduced the pressure that our gas engine was unable to keep our big Marinoni double press at work. We hope the Gas Company will kindly see that this does not happen again. If "Lunch is life" according to a La Plata colleague' gas is also a part of the life of a newspaper. Not to leave any opening for a joke in this respect, we beg to state that coal gas is what we exclusively refer to; not laughing gas or any other kind—real or metaphorical. Neither let any casual reader (We feel certain that no subscriber would do it) try his French on us with "qui s'excuse s'accuse." We're going to start the Electric Light shortly on our premises, and perhaps the Electric Motor also.

We have to thank the Red Star Agency for sending us yesterday the latest papers from England and North America.

A Canadian subscriber has kindly favoured us with a copy of the Carnival Number of the Montreal Daily Star, showing the Ice Castle "comparsas" etc. etc. A Buenos Ayres Carnival is indeed a poor affair compared with that in Montreal. One of the best comparsas ih an enormous codfish, with the inscription:

If you want cod for supper
You must first ask Sir Charles Tupper.

Over the "bacalao" are the words "A welcome for our American cousins," with two large guns protruding from the sides of the fish—a pretty broad hint of popular feeling as regards annexation to Uncle Sam's patch of territory.

Copies of the Civil Marriage Law are being sent to all the Argentine Legations and Consulates, with orders that public notice be given to emigrants to put their certificates of baptism and "estado civil" in their pockets; otherwise connubial bliss will be a matter of some difficulty for them in this free and flourishing land.

The President's Hungarian Escort, started by Sarmiento and abandoned when he left power, is to be revived for President Tajes's visit. The uniform will be tight white trousers, high patent leather jack boots like those worn by Her Majesty's Life Guards, crimson jacket and white and blue plumes. Whether the head-piece is to be a helmet, busby, or shako is not stated. The biggest black horses procurable will carry this new corps of fifty men.

Mr. Charles Emily Wennestron has received his exequatur as Swedish and Norwegian Vice-Consul in Bahia Blanca.

The foundation-stone of the new Matadero will be laid next Sunday. Special train from Once to Flores at 1 p.m. We beg to thank the Committee for

There was a decided improvement in the general tone of the market to-day, which may be attributed to the rising exchange market, the good news from Europe about River Plate produce, and the large amounts of money offering to the Government by the big houses here. One of these houses has just arranged a very large business with the Government, of which we expect to give details in a few days. It appears to us that to-day for the first time since the stoppage of the gold business the market has resumed its normal aspect. The great anxiety that existed due to that measure has been removed. The private banks are all discounting trade "pagarés" most liberally. Exchange keeps rising, and bankers and others are convinced now that the maize crop will at the very lowest calculation be over one million tons for export. The abolition of the gold ring has brought back to the private banks the discount business of trade "pagarés," of which the banks were deprived so long as the houses could secure their gold on time; but now, as there are no sellers on time, merchants have to discount their "pagares" and buy their gold, so that in this respect the stoppage of the gold ring has proved beneficial to the banks. It was rumoured on 'Change that the Minister of Hacienda will probably modify his decree and allow the official quotation of cash gold sales; also that the National Bank Board contemplate putting its reserve and half of its profits into gold, which will be held by the Bank as a special gold reserve fund.

The National Bank to-day gave out the following amounts of gold, by order of Minister Varela;—

Stocks at the first hour to-day betrayed a firmer tone; there is, however, little business doing in National Bank Shares, and buyers for end of May are scarce. National gold Cedulas rule very firm and some of the large houses are buying. Credito Real declined to 136 for end of month and 139 for end May. La Plata Moles remained steady at 143 for end of May, nothing doing for intermediate period. Catalinas are in the same position at 155. Constructors changed hands at 130 for cash, 131.50 for end of month and 135.50 for end May, Scrip and Obligations firm at current rates. In Cedulas there was brisker movement, especially in the National series, which attracted buyers at firm rates for fairly large amounts; the Provincial series also kept up, with the exception, perhaps, of the new series. Taken on the whole the market is rather firmer than yesterday.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

The Board of the City of Buenos Aires Mortgage Bank have made another call, the second, of 20 o/o, on the shares, payable up to 30th inst.

Advices from Montevideo announce that Dr. Reus has been declared bankrupt on petition of three creditors who refused to enter into composition; the three claims amount to 26,000 dollars. The Credito Auxiliar Bank has suspended payments and goes into liquidation. At the meeting of the National Bank shareholders to be held on the 29th inst., three important projects will be proposed as follows: Reform of statutes; authorizing board to arrange with the Government to take shares in the bank, and obtain Government guarantee for Mortgage Cedulas.

Mr. Robinson, the popular sub-manager of the English bank of the River Plate will leave for London in the R. M. S. Tagus. We all hope to see him soon back.

"El Nuevo Banco Italiano" will during Holy Week remain closed on the 18th, 19th and 20th inst.

The sale of 50 shares of the Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata at 285 gold is reported, Messrs. Bervone & Co. brokers.

The retirement of Mr Nystremer from the high post of representative of Mr. Bateman, has caused general surprise. Mr. Nystromer has filled the post so long and is so much esteemed by all who knew him that the market regrets his decision.

Owing to the recent heavy storms in Santa Fe we learn that most of the railway lines connected with the colonies are momentarily stopped, as the earthworks have been washed away and great repairs have to be made.

Bank exchange was again freely offered to day in the market and passed at 47 5/16 and ⅜. Some bankers think that exchange is so very firm that it will soon be at 47½. The National Minister of Hacienda has drawn for a good round sum at 47¼. The Nat. Bank is drawing at 20⅝ paper. All the money which on the Comptoir crisis, Minister Varela sent to Europe, some 12½ million francs, is now, we hear, at the disposal of the government, as the remittances were not required.

With much pleasure we announce that Mr. Thomas Farrell, formerly stock and money broker of Montevideo, has been named director on the Buenos Ayres Loan and Trust Co; a better or more experienced man on their board the company could not have.

Mr. Lord Mayor Seeben has arrived in Montevideo from Europe, and will be up in the morning.

Commodore Ferguson of Rosario was welcomed on change. He reports everything in Rosario going ahead famously.

Mr. F. Uriburu leaves with his family on the Tagus on a European pleasure trip. We wish him a pleasant voyage, and hope to see him soon back. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford also leave in the same steamer. The River Plate has no better or more active friend in London than Mr. Sanford, whose name is identified with the largest financial transactions and the greatest enterprises in the Plate.

Good news for the shareholders of the La Plata Mole Company; we hear that the whole concern is about to be bought up by a London Company, and we suppose it is on the strength of this that the shares have advanced so much.

Mr. Renny has introduced into this market a new brand of whiskey, which is likely to take well, as it is very mild and highly recommended. It is the first Canadian whiskey ever brought to this market.

The Villarino has not yet entered, it is supposed that there is a storm in the South and that she cannot cross the bar at the mouth of the Rio Negro.

The arrivals of wools begin to show a slight falling off, and soon we may expect to hear that all the wool is sold. In the North and West camps farmers complain of a great mortality amongst the lambs, but in the far South the sheep farmers were never doing better.

The Banco de Italia & Rio de la Plata will, during Holy week, remain closed on the 18, 19 and 20th and reopen on Monday 22th at the usual hour.

A telegram was received to-day from the Bolsa Correspondent in London announcing that on the 25th inst. the subscription lists will be opened in Paris for the loan of £3,125,000 for the Santa Fe railroad, French Company. Everything in the shape of a railway stock from this country is so snapped at by European investors that the success of the present issue is a foregone conclusion,

It was said to-day that much gold has been bought in the open market from the houses by parties who were too hurried to run the formalities of a petition to the bank. What is called the market price was spoken of to-day as 159.80, but the National Bank gave everything asked for and at lower rates.

The stock market at the second hour looked even more buoyant than in the morning, whilst the movement was so brisk as to excite comment. National Bank Shares improved to 258 for end of month and 262 for end of May, buyers now putting in an appearance for latter date: the ring closed between buyers and sellers at these rates. Credito Real rose to 137 for end of month and 140 end of May, several lots changing hands up to 135.50 for to-morrow. Bolsa Bank Scrip and Constructors both were firm at the morning's rates. Several stocks lately neglected again put in an appearance, such as Telephone-Telegraphic Shares, Pobladores Railway Shares, and Commercial and Spanish Bank Shares, so that there was clear sign of revival in the market at large. Cedulas also monopolized a fair share of attention, large lots changing hands all for cash and at firm rates, which points to the great confidence of investors in this stock.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

Messrs. Arditi and Rocha have solicited from the Minister of Finance the approving of the Statutes of the society "Centro Comercial" which is to be established for the purpose of acquiring the property and rights of Messrs. Levy & Co. The Society will deal in the purchase and sale of shares, titles, obligations, cedulas, mortgages, etc. The capital will be $1,000,000.

In pursuance of Article 5 clause 3 of the law of the 10th Nov. 1888, the Government has authorised the Banco Hipotecario of the Capital to deposit 5 o/o of the value of the commission of its obligations in Mortgage Cedulas of the Banco Hipotecario Nacional, series A, gold. The interest and amortisation accruing to the deposited Cedulas will be paid every 3 months to the depositing Bank.

The s.s. Cyrene, Lamport and Holt, arrived to-day in Montevideo, with Liverpool dates to 19th March. She will be up to-morrow with 3,945 tons cargo.

The s.s. G. B. Lavarello will be up to-morrow with 510 passengers and 260 tons cargo for this port and 40 passengers and 750 tons for Rosario.

The s.s. Orenoque comes up to-day with 44 first-class and 139 steerage passengers and 2503 packages and 428 bordalesas cargo. Her Montevideau passengers were landed without being subjected to quarantine.

The challenge of estancieros against the iniquitous rise in the "contribucion directa" valuations still goes briskly on. Every partido has entered its protest, and not only protested but adduced bald facts and unvarnished figures to shew in what an unjust spirit the valuators have discharged their task. The last to enter the lists is the Magdalena partido; the estancieros have confided their case to Dr. Piñero, who has full instructions to push the matter to the last extremity. It is easy to foresee that this united vigorous action must be prolific of result.

The National Bank discounted yesterday $1,200,000 between gold and paper.

As already announced, the Banks and Bolsa will close on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Two more "centro agricola" concessions were authorized yesterday, one to Mr. E. Pourtale on his property of 2024 hectares in Olavarria, and the other to Messrs Rivero and Zuay on their property of 2010 hectares in same partido.

The Provincial Government has approved the transfer of the following "centro agricola" concessions to the Sociedad Cooperativa Agricola, the original guarantees still holding good:—Simon J. Sansinena's, R. Oliver's, Paul Harilaos', S. Ramirez's N. Martinez's, P. Blomberg's, B. Aranas's, Ceballos Luna and Co.'s, A. Fleiss', A. Casares', C. Morra's, Dr. Ayarragaray's, M. Gorostiaga's, P. Lascano's, and J. Olmos'. Other transfers similarly approved of are: C. Saavedra's to S. Sosa; G. Fonseco's to J. Rivas, and F. C. Olmos' to D. McPhail.

A notice for which the Eco of Cordoba, official organ in the city of doctors, is responsible, announcing that Minister Varela intends cutting down the National expenditure by the respectable amount of seven million dollars caused much comment and discussion in the market to-day, where the news is received with a strong flavouring of doubt. There is no doubt, however, that a very large number believe that it is just the place where the lancet is required.

The following transactions in real-estate are reported:—

Belgrano, corner Rivadavia, 17x33 metres for 5200 m/n.
Montevideo 1160, 8x25 for 24,000 m/n.
Catamarca 31, 8x33 for 6250 m/n.
Paraguay and Billinghurst, 8x20 for for 2100 m/n.
San Jose de Flores, 44,997 metres for 15,000 m/n.
Comercio and 24 de Noviembre, 44x33 for 10,900 m/n.
Piedras 2377, 7x60 for 20,000 m/n.
P. Alsina, 259 metres for 522,000 m/n.
Tacuari and Caseros, 9x60 for 25,000 m/n.

A good deal of interest is naturally centred in the first trial of exporting live stock to Europe for consumption, and there is no doubt if results confirm expectations that it means the opening up of a new source of wealth for the rich grazier provinces of Buenos Aires and Entre-Rios. Many hold, indeed, that owing to the cost and risk of transport as well as the inferior quality of the article that the trial will prove a failure. This yet remains to be seen, and the following table, which seems moderately calculated in every respect, would tend to prove the contrary:—

	$ gold
Cost of bullock	30
Freight	20
Food, attendance on voyage	10
Duties, etc.	5
	65
Estimated value of bullock in Europe	100
Net gain	35

However it may turn out, Dr. Quirno Costa and the Rural Society are to be praised for the bringing about of this trial, which in opening up a market for the estancieros must tend to improve the herds and flocks and give an increased value to what to-day is worth little more than the price of the hide. As for the animals going forward, 6 are from Mr L. Pereyra's estancia in Quilmes, 30 from Mr. V. Quirno Pizzaro's farm in Moron, and 14 from Mrs. Rocha's estancia, Modano Blanco in Chacabuco; all are mestizos and criollos, four to five years old, and in splendid condition.
